

VPELA Young Professionals' Master Classes

The 2017 Master Classes will run as a series of three interactive sessions to assist young professionals in building skills and learning principles critical to success in the planning and environment industry.

What are the sessions?

Tuesday 11th July 2017: Expert Witnesses

A Q&A session discussing the role of an expert witness and exploring the challenges that an expert might face during a hearing.

Wednesday 26th July 2017: Valuations and Compulsory Acquisitions

An overview of the valuation and legal principles of compulsory acquisitions for today's infrastructure projects

Thursday 10th August 2017: Planning Permit Conditions

An interactive seminar exploring how to write valid, effective and enforceable permit conditions.

Who can participate?

The sessions are targeted at younger professionals who have an ambition to better their knowledge and experience. All members, non-members and students are welcome.

How much does it cost?

Each session will cost $30 for VPELA members and $40 for non-members.

Where will they be held?

The sessions will commence at 6:00PM at the offices of Urbis - Level 12, 120 Collins Street, Melbourne
